

Kay Rodriques is a painter, artist's book maker and printer. She is concerned with capturing figures and organic forms in the built and natural world. Rodriques has been developing her craft since 2009. She completed residencies and workshops at Paper Book Intensive, Casa R.A.R.O.-Barcelona, Urban Glass, and Women's Studio Workshop. Despite differences in mediums and execution, a shared dialogue emerges in her investigation of space, place, memory and emotion through layering, removal and semi to near abstraction. She lives and works in Northern California and Northern Ireland.
